He said: "What knowledge the country child has is certain and vivid. He has been dealing with realities instead of with symbols and abstractions."

BASE HITS.

Judging from the work of certain major league spit ball pitchers so far this season it is evident that that peculiar delivery is still a great puzzle.

It is an old but true saying that "young blood will have its own course and every dog has his day." The youngsters are very prominent in the major leagues this season.

Manager McCloskey of the St. Louis Cardinals is satisfied that he has made a good move in switching Homer Smoot back to center field and playing Arthur Heelskoetter in right field.

President Herrmann is quoted as saying that Sam Crawford, now of Detroit, was the best sun outfielder Cincinnati ever had and that the Cincinnati club would give $10,000 to have him back.

Baseball is the national sport. It can be indulged in by every one and is indulged in wherever sports are followed. A fan figures out that baseball costs the people of the United States more than $5,000,000 annually.

Easy.

"Did you sell horses to those two customers yesterday?" we asked of our friend the horse dealer.

"Yes."

"Make anything?"

"Off of Jones—yes."

"Jones? Why, Jones was the one that said he knew all about horses."

"I know. He was easy. The other fellow didn't know a thing about them and brought around three or four experts before he would buy."—New York Life.
